

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1866.

THE NEWS.

Gold closed at 146 1/2.

An immediate war is expected between Italy and Austria.

The healths of Jefferson Davis is improving.

Secretary Seward is out of danger.

The Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention at Cleveland was called to order yesterday afternoon. The voting test was full. All the States are well represented.

There is a scheme on foot in Cleveland to call a meeting of the soldiers and sailors, who will be invited to present their demands. A bill for this purpose has been drawn up, and will be presented to the next General Assembly.

The half-bands of Illinois are playing a tourney at Bloomington for the Championship of the State.

Sixty-two passenger trains, well filled, arrived at any department from Chicago daily, except Sunday.

They have eight-hour workmen's political league in the city of Detroit.

The Canada potato crop is reported as failing.

The London Chatham and Dover Railway Company, England, has failed, and the railway must be thrown in bankruptcy.

The Boston and Lowell Railroad has its last concession from the New York World of the 11th, a long article favoring the annexation of Canada to the United States.

A lady in Rochester, N. Y., recently received a box containing a watch, which was found to contain the remains of her mother, of whose death she was not until then aware.

Early next week the entire English and Canadian army will be preceded with broad-clothing and mobile telegraphs of these 25,000 are engaged.

One machine has lately been introduced by which a whole sixteen feet deep and one inch in diameter may be dug in forty minutes; the machine costs about a thousand dollars. The water thus produced is to be used for irrigation.

Mr. G. W. Clegg, who has recently been appointed postmaster of Cincinnati, A. M.

The brother of Jefferson Davis, Mr. Warren M. Davis, has been pardoned. He came under the express condition that he would not return to the South.

Gold miners in numbers are returning to the Pacific gold mines.

The Argus, Ga., Chronicle and Sentinel says that the acts of lawlessness in the northern counties of Alabama have been already exaggerated by Col. Fostner, formerly president of the Virginia Central Railroad, was on the 18th presented with three thousand apples while he was standing in the platform. He said, "I am not afraid of any man in the same manner, when he noticed a pail which had been taken out, and, upon inspection, the apple was found to contain poison."

Gen. W. E. Peters was on the 18th elected to the professorship of Law at the Virginia University.

Mr. Wm. S. Higley, formerly of the Republican job printing office in Chicago, together with Mr. J. S. and Mr. C. C. Higley, have been elected with a special volume of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, by the men of the office. It is a dudocracy.

The Masonic Fraternity of Ohio met in Toledo on the 18th. The Grand Commander and Grand Commandant on Thursday, October 1st, Grand Chapter, Friday, October 2d, and the Grand Lodge, Tuesday, October 16th. Thomas Scott, Grand Master; Dr. G. W. Clegg, and John D. Cuthbert, Esq., of Cincinnati, is Grand Master.

In consequence of a three weeks' rainy season in central Ohio, rains are expected for the potato crop.

Wm. G. Smith, at Columbus, Ohio, was on the 18th sentenced to be hung on the 20th of October, for the murder of John Gray on the 1st of October, 1864, at Columbus.

The children's chorus is singing in the Loup.

The street railroad company of St. Louis have been sued by the Street Commissioners for non-payment upon the extensions of their lines, and for damages for the obstruction of the street at night.

On the 18th, Mr. John Martin was fined $100 for being a professional gambler.

A young man named Moseley was murdered by a man named McNeely on the wharf of the small town.

The item of the Daily Tribune attributes the extraordinary good health of this city to the large number of banquets kept by the citizens.

The Mayor of Chicago, Illinois, issues a proclamation forbidding the sale of vegetables, as a sanitary measure.

Four meetings were held in New Orleans on the 18th, that is, a lively party for Cossacks to settle.

There are prospects of a good apple crop in North-eastern Ohio.

An English woman named Mary left home in the 18th, and was never heard of again. Information of her may be sent to J. P. Ward, of Terre Haute.

The Evangelical Church of the 18th says a farmer named Parker's family left a反射ive as large as a man's hand, and possessed one hundred and ten rattles. A large snake, that.

All Evansville on the 18th, a Mr. Johnson, a lawyer, who painted on the boat Aranda, fell into the water, and was drowned.

One of the former magistrates of Evansville was, on the 18th, fined $4 for being drunk, by the present incumbent.

The New York troops at Calverton, Texas, have marched with clowns, as seen in the McKinney Messenger.

They are holding Temperature Meetings in Chaffield County, Virginia.

General Wm. T. Sherman, of the 18th, died at his home in New York.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

General Wm. T. Sherman, of the 18th, died at his home in New York.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

He was buried at 10 a. m. on the 19th.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING THE MANUFACTURE, INSPECTION, AND SALE OF DISTILLED SPIRITS.—We publish to-day, as a matter of general interest, some extracts from the regulations recently issued by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in relation to the duties of distillers of brandy from apples and peaches, rectifiers, and wholesale dealers in liquors, under the amended law which took effect on the 1st of September, 1866. It will be seen that some special privileges are granted to distillers of apples and peaches when they are not engaged in distilling from other substances. The general provisions of the amended law are exceedingly stringent in relation to distillers and dealers in liquor generally, and seem to be admirably calculated to prevent the frauds which have heretofore been so prevalent among distillers and other parties engaged in the liquor business.

POLICE COURT—HON. E. S. CRAVEN, JUDGE.—There were eighteen cases of drunkenness disposed of by fines. There were also sixteen cases of disorderly conduct settled in the same way. In the case against John Cozens and Henry Dickinson, a motion for a new trial was overruled. The case of John Enright, for shooting John McAlpin, was continued to Wednesday. In the case of the city vs. Louis L. Brooks, a motion for a new trial was deferred to Tuesday morning. William Mering, stealing watches from F. W. Jasius, continued to Wednesday. Henry Suydam, recovering stolen goods, continued to Wednesday. Timothy Haggerty, snatched below, held in $200 for sixty days. Stephen C. Clark and sons of family, fined $2 and $4 for thirty days. John Metz, et al., $2 and $25 from C. Shryver, held in $200 to answer Robert Bartley, claiming goods under taken from C. Clark, Mayers, and continued to Wednesday. B. H. Lee, surgeon, continued to Saturday. Lee Smith was brought in from the Workhouse. Henry C. Talbot, retaining money under false pretenses from Dr. Morse of Shelbyville, Ky., discharged. Isaac Schultz, assault and battery on George Gray, warrant suspended. T. J. Sales, being pistol on the street, discharged. C. Boone, Wilkinson Boone, Melodeon Boone, and Wm. Robinson, assault and battery on John Frazier, held in $100 each to answer. Isaac Rabon, assault and battery on Peter Shore, held in $100 to answer. Jacob Sedgwick, assault and battery on Mrs. C. S. Smeck, held in $200 to answer. John Brown and wife, assault and battery on Anthony Young, sent before the Grand Jury. Anthony Young, assault and battery on John Brown, held in $75 to answer. Frel Denswick, for having counterfeit scrip in his possession with intent to pass the same, was held in the sum of $300 to answer.

THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.—There are as yet but two candidates we believe, for the Circuit Court Judgeship made vacant by the death of the lamented Asher W. Graham. George C. Logess of Bowling Green, and James Rush of Madisonville, have been announced. We know each of these gentlemen well. Mr. Logess is a gentleman of splendid legal attainments and high general culture, as well as a gentleman of superior talents and extended popularity. In politics he was a Whig, but during the late election he反叛ed Dugald A. and Hobson, he having been quite an influential delegate to the First of May Convention. Mr. R. would make an excellent and an upright Judge. Mr. Rush was formerly a successful lawyer of Munfordville, in Hart county, and has taken quite an active part in politics. He is an excellent lawyer and a worthy gentleman, and with a stanch patriot and Union man. Some years since he abandoned the law and embarked in the ministry, attaching himself, we believe, to the Baptist denomination. As minister he went out with our Union army as Chaplain of the 9th Kentucky (Col. B. C. Grider's) Infantry. It was true to the cause in its darkest hours of peril. Mr. R. is a gentleman of fine legal attainments, an excellent citizen, and would make a good Judge. Possibly there may be other candidates before the election.

BRITISH TRUTH.—Saturday morning, about 11 o'clock, a young fellow, with the air of a dweller in town, and an elderly gentleman from the country, were seen arm-in-arm entering a drinking-saloon on Second street, near Main. The affectionate parties called for liquor, which was duly swallowed, and the countryman, who was stimulated too much by a glass or two, drew forth his pocket-book to pay for the drink. When the amiable young friend of the old gentleman saw this fine opportunity for borrowing cash, and while the bar-keeper's back was turned, the unsuspecting, convivial gray-beard was knocked down and robbed of thirty or forty dollars. The human dog that committed this deed was favored by the situation, and had only to run a few yards, dodge into an alley, and was lost to view. He has not been detected, although the police were notified of the occurrence and have been on the alert ever since.

CONSECRATION OF THE ASSISTANT BISHOP OF KENTUCKY.—We understand that official letters have been received fixing Thursday, November 13th, as the time for consecrating the Rev. Dr. Cummings as Assistant Bishop of Kentucky. The consecration will take place at Christ Church, with all the solemn grandeur and elaborate music incident to the Episcopal service. Bishop Hopkins of Vermont, senior Bishop of the Church in this country, and many other eminent Episcopal clergymen will officiate in the interesting ceremony. Dr. Cummings has been sojourning in Europe for some time, and was to have started homeward on yesterday, the 17th.

BUREAU OF THE UNITED STATES COMMIS-SIONER.—The following cases were heard and disposed of by the United States Commissioner yesterday. W. E. Pedigo, T. J. Dedoor, and Alexander Polson of McAllester county, recognized in one thousand dollars each to answer an indictment charging them with removing whisky for sale before inspection. E. P. Hodges of Hickman county, recognized in six hundred dollars for manufacturing four without license, all of the parties to appear at the October term of the United States District Court.

A TERRIBLE MISTAKE.—At Indianapolis on last Saturday night a Mr. Gilkey, who is a contracting carpenter, mistaking his room-mate, Leonidas Johnson, for a burglar, shot him through the head, killing him instantly. Mr. Johnson was a young man eighteen years of age and of much promise. A large concourse of friends followed his remains to the grave on Sunday afternoon.

THE MILITARY DEPARTMENT OF KEN-TUCKY is decidedly on a peace footing. Not an item to be had at headquarters yesterday.

Death of Hon. A. W. Graham and Hon. Henry Grider.

We had intended before this to notice in brief the deaths of these two distinguished and good men. Occurring near the same time and almost without premonition, and both of the deceased being young high official positions, their deaths have created a vacuum in Kentucky, not easily filled. Identified with the early history of the State, they had both throughout all their lives been men of usefulness, and filled various places of honor and trust. They were both citizens of the Green River country, and their worth made them shining ornaments, which were justly the pride of the whole State. From the writer's earliest recollection Asher W. Graham had occupied a responsible judicial position on the Bench of Kentucky, a part of the time a Judge of the Court of Appeals, but for a much longer period Circuit Court Judge in the Fourth Judicial District. Throughout all the varied scenes of his eventful life he was honored and respected by men for his justness of thought, his purity of character, and his incorruptible integrity. No man in the State attached to his person more reverence and respect than did Judge Graham. As a lawyer, his attainments were of a very superior order, having studied and mastered thoroughly the elementary and practical principles of the profession, in his well trained youth, while in general knowledge he was a man of vast and varied culture. His success at the bar, coupled with his high views of justice as it should be meted out to men, marked him as one eminently fit for the Judgeship, and long years ago he donned the ermine which he wore until the day of his death. Placid and untroubled through the most stormy trials, he was never thrown from a just equilibrium by the ingenuity and sophistry of opposing counsel, and seldom failed to render correct legal and moral decisions.

Judge Graham was no politician. The purity of his character and Christian modesty kept him aloof from the turbulent and murky waters of politics. He was a warm and fervid patriot. He was an old-line Clay Whig a Fillmore and a Bell man. During our late terrible troubles he was all the time an unswerving Union man, yet deeply hurt that the mad passions of men had plunged us into the furnace of civil war. He lived through the stormy times of the war to see his country triumphant. As a man he had given to the graves of his fathers without a stain or blemish upon his name or his character. He sank into his grave gently as the sun goes down from the evening sky, with all the glories of his past course rich and serene about him. He was sixty-four years of age at the time of his death, which occurred a short time since at his residence in Bowling Green, producing gloom throughout his district and indeed the entire State.

HON. HENRY GRIDER.—He was a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family of the late Payne, who attacked Adams with a knife, when the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired upon Payne, the ball taking effect and producing instant death. Adams was arrested and will have a hearing.

HOPEFUL AT HENDERSON.—We learn

from a gentleman who came passenger on the steamer Tarascon from Henderson, this morning, the particulars of a difficult life and a long and eventful career. He was a highly respectable and accomplished man, and in many ways a lively shade keeper in that town named Paynes. A quarrel had taken place between Payne and a man named Adams, who was a member of the family

